The Bondholders -- A Representative

The newspapers of the State, the News among others, have published something of the recent action of the holders in the North of North Carolina bonds of all classes, looking to an adjustment of the debt of this State. The was published in yesterday's News that a meeting of these bondholders was held in New York on the 3rd inst., at which Messrs Geo. S. Coe, President of the American Exchange National Bank, of New York, J. D. Vermilye, President of the Merchants' National Bank of New York, B. B. Sherman, President of the Mechanics' National Bank of New York, B. B. Comegys, Vice President of the Philadelphia National Bank of Philadelphia, and Enoch Pratt, President of the National Farmers' and Planters' Bank of Baltimore, were appointed a board of arbiters to agree if possible upon a plan for the solution and adjustment of the bonded debt of the States of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee, upon terms which will be agreeable alike to the bondholders and the people of the States. It is stated that this board of arbiters is composed of business men who do not hold bonds of anyof these States, and who never have, and that they were selected as disinterested parties to re-organize if possible upon an equitable basis, the public debts of the States named, now anable to meet their payments in ar-

Yesterday, Col. J. E. Peyton, of Haddonfield. New Jersey, arrived in this city, bearing letters as a representative le ter delegating to him the anthority to act in this matter, Mr. Geo. S. Coe requests him to confer with the executive authorities of the States of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennesseer and ascertain from them if they are disposed to entertain suggestions for the compromise of the debts of their respective States, and if they will recommend eiforts at compromise to their respective Legislatures. Col. Peyton bears letters which recommend highly the integrity and financial ability of the committee which he represents, these letters signed by Wm. Cullen Bryant, Thurlow Weed, Peter Cooper, and others of the most noted of the financial men and political economists of the North.

Col. Peyton on yesterday afternoon had conferences with Gov. Vance and Treasurer Worth relative to the object of his visit, and will perhaps while here lay some proposition before the General Assembly through the joint committee on the State debt. Our people will watch with interest any steps which may be taken looking to the accomplishment of the object had in view.

The Week of Prayer.

The second union prayer meeting in observing this week was held last night at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, and was very largely attended by members of the various churches. Dr. Pritchard conducted the meeting, reading the 17th chapter of John and delivering a very forcible and impressive address appropriate to the occasion. The following gentlemen took part in the meeting: Rev. Dr. Burkhead, Rev. Dr. Vaughan, J. C. Scarborough, Rev. Wm. R. Atkinson, and Wm. S. Primrose. The meeting to-night is at Edenton Street Methodist Church, and the subject is prayer for families; for tle unconverted; for sons and daughters abroad; for those in sickness, trouble or temptation; and for those who have been recently "added to the church;"

Appointment of Librarian, Gov. Vance yesterday appointed Mr. Sherwood Haywood, of this city, State Librarian. The appointee is a young gentleman of great geniality and one who has scores of friends to congratulate him in his success against such an array of competitors as he had to contend with. Mr. Haywood will fill the position with great acceptability, and none who are thrown with him in his official capacity will ever question the Governor's judgment.

New Engrossing Clerk of the Senate. Col. J. McLeod Turner, late engrossing clerk of the Senate, having resigned that position on account of his appointment as keeper of the capitol, the Senate held a caucus yesterday after the executive session had adjourned, and selected Mr. W. J. Wilson, of Haywood, as his successor. Mr. W. will be formally elected in open session this morn-

Meeting of Bank Stockholders.

Yesterday was a field day with the banking men of this city. The annual meeting of the stockholders of each of the three national banks was held .-We learn that the stock in all the banks was largely represented. The results are summed up as follows:

**Citizens National: Messrs. W. E.** Anderson, A. B. Andrews, R. H. Battle, Jr., A. P. C. Bryan and W. J. Hawkins were re elected directors for the year. At a subsequent meeting of the directors W. E. Anderson was re-elected President, and P. A. Wiley, Cashier. There are no changes as to the subordinate officers. State National :- Messrs. John G. Williams, D. G. Fowle, W. R. Cox, S. C. White and W. W. Vass were elected directors for the ensuing year. At a subsequent meeting of the directors John G. Williams was re-elected President and S. C. White, Cashier. No changes as to the subordinate officers.

Raleigh National:—Messrs. Charles Dewey, W. H. Bagley, Edwin G. Reade, W. N. H. Smith, D. M. Carter, F. O. Moring and W. G. Upchurch were chosen directors. The directors will meet this morning for the election of the officers of the bank, and the names of these will be given in our next isssue. There will be material changes in the officers of the institution.

A Year of Momentous Political Events.

Prospectus of the Raleigh News.

Momentous events are thronging to the front. Two political parties of the country are marshaling their intellectual forces for the constitutional battle, on which hangs the fate of the government or the ensuing four years, perhaps for all the time. From now until the 4th of March the republic will be the theatre of a drama more thrilling in interest than any before enacted in America, to be followed, in all probability, by a period of the profoundest concern to all our people Some predict a terrible clash of arms, but whether or not war results from the turbulent condition of the public mind, it is certain that the year 1877 will see thick crowding occurrences of great moment.

Of these events and circumstances the NEWS will be a watchful, faitoful chronicler. Its news will be the freshest and fullest that competent and experienced journalists can obtain on whatever field the same is to be collected.

The NEWS will endeavor, in its editorial course, to uphold the constitution and the laws guaranteeing a truly re-publican form of government. It will counsel moderation in the treatment of political questions, but firmness in the defence and maintenance of right, as the ouly foundation of enduring peace. The NEWs is the authorized organ the Democratic party.

In all its departments-News and Correspondence, Political, Commercial, Financial, Agricultural, Local, Miscellaneous, &c., the NEWS will at least sustain the character it has so long held, and which has been acknowledged in thousands of commendations from the press, and from the reading public.

THE tax-payers are sustaining Hamp ton nobly. The Chamberlain administration is gradually falling to ruins The starvation plan is working well.

A FULL account of the Bennett-May fiasco appeare in our telegraphic columns. The Herald will perhaps hereafter have less to say in ridicule of the code.

THE Rural Carolinian has suspended publication, permanently. Its editor, Col. D. Wyatt Aiken, says "it died a natural death, but not so much from want of breath as from the want of food."

GOVERNOR Hampton expresses the opinion that the South ought to have nothing to do with the settlement of the Presidential difficulty. Governor Vance's position, that the South should follow the lead of the constitutional men of the North, is the true policy.

GOVERNOR Haves states in his mesage that during the past year the cities of Ohio increased their indebtedness more than ten million dollars. The reckless way in which cities go into debt, and the indifference shown by them in meeting obligations, are not the least among the growing evils of the

THE letter from Lincoln county on the subject of county governments will be read with interest. It contains some valuable suggestions. It breathes that patriotic spirit of concession to the necessities of the east, which is so THE NEGRO AND OUR PARTY,

Governor Vance's speech to the colored men of this city on the second day of January, made a profound impression apon them; and has already done good, A communication appearing in another column this morning, from a leading and intelligent colored man of this city, shows very clearly what the men of his race think of it.

The negroes had been taught to believe that Gov. Vance was hostile to them; that he would do them all the harm in his power; that with his triumph their rights would be trampled upon and their freedom vanish and become "as a tale that is told"; and we know not what all. They were deeply alarmed, and many of them no doubt fancied that they heard in our shout of victory the knell of their departing days of liberty.

Scoundrels, for a base partisan purpose, had instilled these wrong notions into the heads of their ignorant dupes Men of our own race, we are ashamed to say, had gone in and out among them by day and by night, poisoning their minds with malicious insinuations, blinding them with falsehood, and wickedly arousing their worst fears. We can imagine how much surprised relieved and delighted they were when they heard Gov. Vance's wise and noble speech, promising them the fullest and freest enjoyment of their chartered rights; or read his inaugural address, urging the white people to convince the negroes by liberal legislation and kind reatment that they not only intended them no wrong, but earnestly desired their prosperity and happiness; "that as men of christian affections we can never forget the kindly friendships which were formed between master and servant, between jealous protection and faithful service; and that as men of chivalry and honor we scorn to deprive or oppress them because they are weaker in numbers and intelligence than we are."

The position which Gov. Vance has taken with regard to the negro race, meets with universal commendation. His utterances reflect the sentiment of the Democratic party of this State thoroughly; and we believe his good advice will be followed, so that the negroes may banish the last vestige of gloomy fear for the security of their rights; and rest assured that the generous words of our Governor, which have so relieved the anxious minds of the colored people, are not empty sounds, signifying nothing.

The attitude of our party towards the negro in this State is similar to that occupied by them in other Southern States. Governor Hampton fought his brilliant and successful campaign on the line justice and kindness to the black race; and is to-day sustained in his administration by the whole people, without respect to color. And on Monday, Governor Nichols told the colored people of Louisiana, that it would be a great object in his administration "to promote kindness, sympathy, confidence and justice between the two races that inhabit the State, and who, with a common interest, should co-operate to secure common good."

With sentiments like these governing the course of the Democratic party, the negro, will, as indicated by Gov. Vance, come under favorable circumstances to be recognized as "an element not only of public wealth but of conservative power in politics which may become a cherished bulwark of the South."

GOVERNOR HUBBARD, of Connecticut. in his inaugural address criticised very severely though justly the policy of the administration towards the South. He deprecates military interference with our governments, and says "if the people of the South are unfit for self-government it would be better to create there a dictator, who, being dependent on no party, would have no party to serve, or accept an equally lawless alternative to remand the States into a cordition of territorial dependence and attempt another experiment of reconstruction, than to tolerate usages and methods which are fatal to all traditions of liberty; and which, if continued cannot fail to tend to destroy our system of free government, for bad examples are contagious, and the military enginery which is trained in one State to-day at the caprice of a single man may be trained in another to-morrow." The last sentence reads like prophecy for a few days after this speech "the military enginery" of the government was directed against Indiana. The people of the South agree with the Connecticut Governor that the rule of dictator would be better than that of carpet-baggers and other disreputable characters; but, thanks to Vance, Hampton, and other noble patriots who led our hosts to victory, we will be called upon to submit to neither. The South is safe in the haven of local self-government, let national affairs tide as they

In another column this morning wil be found an able argument to show why Mr. H. C. Maddrey, of Hertford, should be seated in the House of Representatives, instead of Mr. J. J. Horton, the sitting member. It is clear that the election law was deliberately, plainly and defiantly violated in Winton township to secure a party triumph. What more does the Legislature desire than the knowledge of this fact, in order to throw out the Winton box? It is a matter of little consequence to the party or the State whether Mr. Maddrey is seated or not; but it is a matter of very great importance that the election law be preserved in its purity and in its necessary in the solution of this questinajesty. If this case is passed over without due investigation, followed by a just decision upon its merits, a bad precedent will be set, which unscrupulous partisans will in the future be swift to take advantage of. Mr. Maddrey's claims are founded in reason, in justice, and in the letter and spirit of the law. He should be seated, unquestionably, if the facts be as they are represented by his friends; and we do not doubt that they are so.

THE ARK OF SAFETY. Mr. Lamar is regarded as one of the truest exponents of Southern opinion. His views upon great public questions are always worthy of the highest consideration. He is quoted as follows:

The safety of this country, and especially the happiness and prosperity of the South, depend on the strictest and most loyal devotion to the constitution. All the disorders that affect the country at this time are the result of departures from the fundamental law. All the dangers now apprehended are the dangers which will spring alone from the violation of constitutional methods,-There is no necessity for any violation or for violence in order to bring the government back to constitutional procedure. It is only necessary to concentrate the attention of the people upon the violations already committed, and those threatened, in order to exorcise the danger and difficulty. Indeed the result of secession has eliminated from our system all resorts to extra constitutional remedies, and happily in this emergency, none are needed. Whether the joint committee of the two Houses agree or not, the provisions of the constitution are adequate to a safe, satisfactory and final solution of every question involved in the present emergency On the 14th of February next the house will be bound, under the constitution, to meet in the same chamber and perform the duties and exercise the powers which the constitution devolves upon them: to examine and ascertain the result of the election of President and Vice-President. Neither house can refuse to perform the duties without abnegating its constitutional duty. In this august assemblage, it is the condition of our national life that the duties imposed shall be discharged in the spirit of truth and patriotism, regardless of the consequences to party, but profoundly anxious for those that concern the whole country. If, however, as the constitution contemplates in this, as well as in other cases, requiring the co-operative action of the two houses, they are unable to agree upon a decision whether either candidate has beeu elected, it must follow there can be no constitutional ascertainment and judgment put upon record, that any one has received the votes of a majority of the Electors appointed. The effect is a failure to elect. In such case the constitution is clear. It devolves upon each of the houses immediately their respective duties; one to elect the President and the other the Vice-President. Let the constitution be maintained inviolate. and there need be no disorganizing collisions and no necessity of resorting to

Our correspondent, "Western N. ," thinks General W. R. Cox is the man to succeed Judge Watts. He professes to reflect the opinions and wishes of the people of his section of the State. We are quite sure that such an appointment would give satisfaction generally throughout the State-but especially in the sixth judicial district, where Gen. Cox is so well known.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York World thinks it would be well to know why the officers and privates of the army stationed in Louis-iana "are not called before some committee to tell what they have seen and heard." These men would certainly be competent and valuable witnesses.

The Washington Union says the cruelties of the Republican negroes to their brethren, whom they considered back-sliders for voting the Democratic ticket, are fearful. They show the existence of the old Hottentot barbarism in scarcely diminished force. Their treatment f each other is far beyond anything that has been laid to the charge of

A gentleman who has just returned o Washington from a visit to the interior of Massachusetts, where he met and conversed only with Republicans, says that to his surprise he found the election of Mr, Tilden was universally conceded, and that any attempt to inaugurate Hayes by fraud or force is deprecated in the strongest terms.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

Leiter From Lincoln County. To the Editor of the Raleigh News: Sin: In your issue of the 18th of December I find a communication from W. H. Oliver, of Newbern, in relation to a change in county government. So far as we of the western counties are concerned or interested in the matter of county government, we can get along very well under the present law of elect-ing county officers, but in order to re-lieve our eastern brethren of some of the burdens they are forced bear under the present system of county government, we ought to yield to some plan of amendment. And while I cannot fully concur with Mr. Oliver in his plan, I doubt not that his would be a marked I think. improvement over the present. wever, the better plan would be for the General Assembly to appoint the magistrates, on the recommendation of the citizens of their respective counties, taking care at the same time to see that none are appointed or commissioned who are unworthy, say two or more in each township, if the people desire it. ## Why Mr. Maldrey Should be Seated.

To the Editor of the News. Sir: The unprecedented number of contested election cases which, since 1868, form no inconsiderable part of the records of the National and State governments, have educated the public mind to regard such cases with uttle interest, and to take for granted that the success of the contestant entirely depends upon his good fortune in having a majority of his party friends in the tribunal before which he submits his claims. That this is the tendency of public opinion wid not be denied. That it has been caused by a feeling of partizanship which has characterized the proceedings of legislative bodies in this country, for the last eight years, must be admitted.

It is not our belief that all contested election cases have been considered from the low standpoint of the partizan, and illegally decided; some, no doubt, have been viewed from the clevated plane of patriotism, and decided in strict accordance with law. Jut the latter has been the exception and not the general rule.

The case now before the General As sembly of this State, in which Mr. H. (. Maddrey is comesting the right of Mr. J. J. Horton to represent Hertiera county in the lower branch of that body, involves principles which, if correctly determined, will greatly tend to pre serve the purity of the bailot box and teach certain individuos in Hertford county that they cannot vigate the election laws with impunity.

As Mr. Maddrey's pontical friends are largely in the ascendency it is hoped that they will give to the evidence of both parties a candid and fair consideration, and to the case a thorough investigation. We are honestly of the opinion that this will be done. Nothing less would be accepted by Mr. Maddrey, or endorsed by his friends who supported him so cordially at the late election, Neither Mr. Maddrey or his friends are apprehensive of the result, after the severest scrutiny, because both are conscious of the justness of the cause. And it is now proposed to state briefly the asis of this confidence. The statute of this State provides: (Lattie's Revisal page 439, sec. 16.) That the polls shall be opened on the gay of election from seven o'clock in the morning until sunset of the same day. and each voter whose name may appear lenged and rejected, shall hand in his lahots to the judges who shall carefully acposit the ballots in the ballot

What does the above provision mean? We apprehend that it it was submitted to the two hundred and thirty-three thousand voters who east their banets in the late election every one of them. who possess sufficient intelligence to constine a plain English sentence, would promptly decide it meant that the polls hould be opened at seven o clock in the morning, on the day of the electhe same day. There would be no diversity of epinion. Now, was the said provision compiled with in Hertford county? In Winton township it was net. All will admit, Republicans and Democrats alike, that at Winton the polls were not open at seven o'clock on the morning of the day of the election, or closed at sunset on the same day, but that they were kept open until twenty-eight minutes after eight o'clock P. M. on the day of election; that they were kept open, too, till this late hour in the night against the protest of the Democratic supervisor and judges of

If the provision quoted should be held to be mandatory, the case will have been decided and the "Winton vote" must be thrown out. But, should it be held to be directory, only, then, according to Cooly on Constitutional Limitations, (page 618), a like result must follow, because "the door of the room where the election was held was closed and legal voters were excluded." author referred to, on page 617, says :-"Whether irregularity will avoid an election or not must depend generally upon the effect the irregularity may have had in obstructing the complete expression of the popular will." page 618 the same author says, in a leading case, the following irregularity was held not to vitiate the election: "The closing of the outer door of the room where the election was held, at sundown, and then permitting the persons within the room to vote; it not appearing that legal voters were excluded by closing the door, or illegal allowed to election at that precinct.

At Winton the door was closed and legal voters were excluded, thus preventing a complete expression of the popular will and citiating the election at that precinct. And other facts justify the charge that the election law was thus openly and defiantly violated to secure a party triumph. The sheriff of Hertford county, previous to 1874 a strong Conservative Democrat, but since that time has been co-operating zealously with the Republicans, and a warm sup-porter of Mr. Horton in the last campaign, locked the door to the room where the election was held, and, acting with the Republican judges of election and the Republican supervisor, permitted only Republicans to vote, and refused to receive the vote of a Democrat who was in the room offering and desirous to vote. This sheriff was a candidate himself for re-election to the office which he then held and an active purtizan. The above are facts, and will be testified to by men of unexceptionable character and high social standing. It seems that they ought to satisfy every fair-minded man in the State that Mr Maddrey's claims are just and well founded, and that he should be seated. HARRELLSVILLE,

Gov. Vance's Speech to the Negroes-Views of a Colored Man.

To the Editor of the News :

SIR—Agreeable to your request I take advantage of this, the first opportunity, to give to you my views of the impression and effect produced by the speech of Gov. Z. B. Vance on the oceasion of our fourteenth Anniversary Celebration of the proclamation of emancipation. But in doing so you will permit me, first, to state, that at this juncture, I am wholly unprepared to do so from otherthan a colored Republican standpoint :

Secondly, you will allow me to briefly retrospect the causes which lead to this requirement.

From the very first time that the name Zebulon B. Vance was sounded in connection with the ever memorable gubernatorial contest of 1876, down to the day of his speech on the occasion herein refered to, I regarded it as a besom of destruction to the rights and liberties of the colored people of North Caronna, notwithstanding the fact that they were guranteed by the great magnet Charta of our republic. Though fully aware of the fact that he could not of his own accord re-enslave us, as many believed, yet I feared that by proscription, class legislation &c., we would, under his administration, be remanded to a condition equal to that of the peons in Mexico, or in other words a condition less tolerable than slavery. Such I must confess were my fears, while a vast majority of my people en-tertained the greatest dread of his success, which in many instances reached the heighth of terror. Thus you can imagine our feelings when we became thoroughly convinced that the name Zebulon B. Vance, with all of its accompanying terrors, had signally triumph-It appeared as if our future sky, which but yesterday was clear and bright, had all at once grown dark and gloomy, and such was the thick blackness which hid it from the present, that our brightest hopes, as it were, by magic power, were transformed into the deepest despair. Like the children of Israel, we were apparently environed on either side by exceeding high mountains, with the red sea before and the enemy behind us. In this position some were, in the language of the Israelites, forced to enquire, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness?" In this, the darkest hour in the his tor, of our freedom we concluded that the nearest way to day-light of some kind from this night of despondency was, to go to the supposed author of its existence, and there we were certain of a token for either good or evil. Hence the invitation which was tendered his Excellency, the Governor.

Though many anticipated the most unpleasant results and even deprecated the idea of such a course, yet others hoped for better things, but still feared that their hopes would be disappointed. The moment came. The dreadful suspense was broken, but unlike the spirit which actuated Pharaoh of ancient times, to crush the hopes of the Israelites, it was broken with word after word of promise and encouragement, until the vast assemblage, upon whom they fill, appeared to be most happily disap-

Together with the supplementary remarks of Attorney-General Kenan, which virtually substantiated all the Governor had said, called forth unexpected expressions of gratification.

THE EFFECT. Thus these glimmering rays of promise to some extent dispelled the darkness which hovered about us. Though there was a difference of opinion in regard to the ultimatum of so auspicious an occasion.

THE IMPRESSION. After the conclusion of the exercises we took occasion to enquire of some of the more prominent colored men present their opinion of the precedings, and especially those who at first depre cated them, and without an exception, they all expressed themselves as highly pleased with them. A CHARACTERISTIC OF THE COLORED MAN. There is one among the many characteristics of the colored man which has ever stood out in bold relief, i.e., fondness of approbation. When you tickle his ears with flattery, being somewhat credulous, you can then better control him than at any other time. But such has been his political experience that a sound, however captivating, coming from those whom he has always regarded as his political foes falls lightly upon his ears. And like Doubting Thomas of old, except he sees for himself the fulfilment of those promises, so voluntarily and unreservedly made to him, not only on the day of his rejoicing, but on the day of inauguration, he will not believe. In conclusior, I have but to say, if the assurances which have been made are faithfully observed we shall have nothing to fear, nor nothing of which to complain. But if they are violated, we shall be lost for language with which to characterize such wilful utterances, Respectfully yours, O. HUNTER, JR. SAVE YOUR COTTON SEED THE PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 .- The World states that information was received in this city last night saying that James Gordon Bennett and Frederick May met at Slaughter Gap, Delaware, at 2 o'elock yesterday afternoon. Only one shot was fired, and May wounded. The party immediately afterward separated, and Bennett started for this city.

Dispatches were received by August Belmont last night, and by Wm. R. Douglas from Bennett himself saying: "We have met and I am all right." Bennett also telegraphed his sister that he was unhurt.

A cousin of Frederick May, in this city, also received a telegram from one of May's friends on the ground saying that May had been wounded, but not stating how severe the wound. From the fact that only one shot was fired it is believed that May's injury must be severe. While his friends admit that he is wounded they are unwilling to state the character of the wound and also to give information where the wounded man was borne. It is probable, however, that the party bearing the wounded man will arrive in Baltimore this morning. The World has the following: Baltimore, Md., Jan. 8, 2.30 A. M .-From all indications since midnight it appears highly probable that Fred. May was only slightly wounded Bennett, and is now under the care of the surgeon at the residence of relatives near by the place of the Another early Baltimore dispatch to the same paper reports that Bennet was slightly wounded, and says that Fred. May, of New York, was beyond all doubt in Baltimore last night and went away early this morning, accompanied by his cousin Fred. May, of Baltimore.

The most generally accepted statement is that the duel took place near Elkton, the capital of Cecil county, not far from the country seat of Dr. De-Courcy, a near relative of the May family. Dr. DeCourcy certainly arrived in Baltimore late this evening and drove to Fred, May's place. Beyond all doubt a distinguished surgeon of this city was in waiting at the May house, expecting that his services would be required. The Times has these specials:

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—A mysterious party of three persons arrived in this city on the midnight train from the south and immediately proceeded to the Continental Hotel, where they were registered as J. G. Bennett, H. A. Robbins and C. P. Phillips, of New York. The first named is James Gordon Bennett, of the Herald. He immediately retired to his room, while the other gentlemen, who looked as if they had been traveling, gave orders for baths. Bennett did not register the names, as the names are all in the handwriting of Phillips. Bennett seemed haggard and careworn, and the rest of the party were very morose .-They had no baggage with them except satchels. BALTIMORE, Jan. 8.—The duel was fought at Slaughter's Station on the DelawareRailroad. After an exchange of shots a reconciliation was effected, when all parties returned to Philadelphia. Fred May, of this city, acted as second for his cousin and Howland Robbins for Bennett.

DOVER, DEL., Jan. 8.—It is reported that the Bennett-May duel was fought yesterday at Slaughter Station, Del., 10 miles west of here. Bennett and party, consisting of four persons, chartered a special train and went from Clayton, Del., to Philadelphia last night, while the May party, consisting of 3 persons, came here in a carriage from Slaughter's Station, stopped at Ford's Hotel for the night and took an early train this morning for Philadelphia. They registered no names and talked but little, but parties here recognized them and there is no doubt about their identity. Rumors say that the matter was amicably settled by the parties shaking hands and declaring themselves satisfied before any shots were exchanged. Other rumors say that May was wounded and left in the neighborhood.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—A dispatch from Wilmington, Del., this morning, says that May and a friend arrived there this morning bound north. Although said to be wounded in the body, he does not show it.

Return of an Alleged Bank Robber --He Pleads not Guilty—An Atteged Accomplice Bailed In a Bond of RICHMOND, Jan. 9,-Samuel Thornburg, charged with robbing the bank of Petersburg, Va., on the 30th ultimo of sixteen thousand seven hundred dollars, returned to that city last night and surrendered himself. He stated he was at Harrisburg, Pa., when he heard of the robbery and that he was charged with the crime and that being guiltless he at once started back to face the charge and establish his innocence. Upon being searched but few dollars were found on his person. Thornburg positively denies taking any of the money but declines to tell why he went away. Richard Bagby, of the firm of T. S. Gates & Co., who was arrested on the charge of counselling and abetting Thornburg to make a false entry in the book of the Citizens' Bank of Peters-burg by which Bagby was enabled to obtain ten thousand dollars of the money of said bank, has been bailed under a writ of habeas corpus in fifteen thousand dollars to answer the charge on the 18th instant.

The White League In Arms—The Nicholla Covernment Upholding the The Pomp and Circumstance of Giorious War."

NEW ORLEANS Jan. 9 .- At this hour the members of the White League, which have been mustered in by the Nicholls government as militia have as-sembled with arms at LaFayette square with the avowed purpose of maintaining the Supreme Court abolished by the Kellogg government.

LATER .- At this writing, 9:50 a. m., the streets are filled with armed men, hurrying to LaFayette square, where soldiers are dashing about on horse-back, presenting all phases of an army on the eve of a battle. Armed men are reporting to the sheriff whose purpose it is stated is to take possession of the Supreme Court room now in charge of the Metropolitan police and install Nich-oll's newly appointed Judges of the Supreme Court. It is more than possible that the attempt will be made to capture the police stations also. An advertisement appears this morning ordering members of Washington Artillery to assemble at their armory at 10 o'clock.

LATER.-At this time, 10:30 a. m., armed men are still hurrying through the streets to LaFayette square, where they report to the sheriff, who it is said will remove them at 11 a. m., to the Supreme Court building, facing Jackson square, and endeavor to take possession of it. Chief Justice Ludeling is there on the bench, and Capt. Gray, of the Metropolitan police, with a strong force is in possession of the building under an order from the Chief Justice. It is stated that the Chief Justice will remove the present sheriff, if he attempts to take the building by force and appoint another sheriff. Governor Packard is at the State House, cool and calm. He has telegraphed President Grant for assist-While the men under arms dis avow any intention of provoking a collision, a drunken man, an irresponsible boy, or an accidental shot may bring on a riot surpassing those of 1866 or 1874. The government of Nicholls is at Congressional-The Board of Police Commissioners Abolished -- The Pacific Railroad -- The Obstinate Orton and ontumacious Telegraphers.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 9 .- The Senate by a unanimous vote, and with-out debate, passed the House bill to abolish the board of commissioners of the Metropolitan police of the District of Columbia and to transfer its dutie to the commissioners of the District of Columbia. The bill abolishing the police board passed both Houses and goes to the President. The bill gives the control of the police to the District commissioners.

The Judiciary Committee discussed the case of Barnes and others in contempt for refusing to produce telegrams.

No conclusion. The sub-committee on the Pacific Railroad submitted the bill foreshadowed to the full committee which proceeded to consider it and adjourned till to-morrow. The point of junction is one hundred miles west of El Paso by the surveyed route. All parties seemed satisfied, and the road will be built.

NIGHT DISPATCHES. LOUISIAN 1.

The Nicholls' Government Are in Poseession of Everything But the Capi-tol-No Blood Spilled Yet-Republi-cans in a Hopeless Minority-Fed-eral Interference the Only Salvation for the Packard Crew .-- The Civil

NEW ORLEANS, Jap. 9.—The Nicholls authorities have taken possession of all the police stations and the court rooms in the parish of New Orleans. The Packard authorities hold only the State House. No blood has been shed.

At 11:50 o'clock, a. m., the Nicholls militia took possession of the Supreme Court building, and installed their judges. All the police stations are in possession of the Nicholls government. Not a gun has been fired.

LATER-1:30 P. M.-The Nicholls gov ernment are in possession of everything except the State House. As yet no effort has been made to take possession of that building, around which thousands of unarmed citizens are congregated, blocking up the streets and squares and rendering it impossible to reach it. About 3,000 of Nicholl's militia are under arms on the levee at the foot of Deca-tur street, and it is reported that the emand for a surrender of the State House will be made this p. m. As the Republicans are in a hopeless minority it is hardly probable that an armed resistance will be made. The force under Governor Packard there will not exceed three hundred. The commander of the U.S. sloop of war Ossippee, has established a signal station on the custom house in order to communicate with officials there. The Osippee and Monitor, canoniens, are lying off foot of Paydras street, United States Marshal Pilkin is in constant communication with Washington, giving every phase of the situation, Chief Justice Ludeling this morning issued an order removing civil sheriff Handy and ap-pointing Alfred Bourges to that position. Handy was acting under orders from Gov. Nicholls and hence the action. Up to this hour not a shot ha been fired or an accident reported. Great crowds are assembled on Canal, Camp and other principal streets. The Republicans report that two regiments from Mississippi and one from Alabama

Packard says that he will resist any attack made on the State House and the Democratic leaders say that they have no intention of making any.

BENNETT-MAY.

They D d Fight--James Gordon Pinks His Man--They then Make Friends.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 .- This afternoon's Express says there was but one exchange of shots, and at the first fire Mr-May was hit in the forearm. The party engaged in the duel, principals, seconds and surgeons, were in Baltimore night before last and at 10 o'clock they took the northward bound train. Mr. Bennett and his party drove into the wood near the place of meeting at Slaughter's Station in sleighs, and upon reaching the spot where the Rowland-Cowles duel had been fought, Mr. Bennett and his friends found Mr. May and his party on the ground, Mr. May walking briskly to keep warm. Mr. Bennett stood facing the light and Mr. May quickly assumed his position, when given the word of preparation by the seconds. At 2:08 the word of command sounded and the words "fire! one! two! three!" Mr. May fired at the word "one," Mr. Bennett after the word "two," and both were apparently uninjured. Mr. May was found after a moment to have been hit, and his seconds conveyed him to a sleigh where it was found that his wound would prevent another exchange of shots, which had been demanded by Mr. Bennett. Mr. Bennett is now in the city. The feud was settled after firing the first shot.
